

Membership of the Kite Club of Scotland entitles you to:

- Subscription to the quarterly Kiteflier magazine in .pdf format.
To get the latest news in the kite world.
- Insurance cover for kite flying at club events and specified kite festivals.
With the increased interest in kite buggying, the Club must point out that it's insurance does not cover this activity and if buggying is to be pursued at Club fly-ins additional insurance should be obtained.
- Membership card.
- Affiliation to the Kite Society of Great Britain and should allow entitlement to discount at some kite shops.

On the issue of Power Kiting, the Committee does not recognise this as an activity associated with the aims of the Kite Club of Scotland. Basically it is very dangerous and is not to be recommended without proper training and safety equipment.

Note that responsible flying of powerful kites does not necessarily fall into the category of Power Kiting.

The membership rates, renewable in March, or September whichever is first after joining are:

- Individual membership rate: £15.00
- Group membership rate: £22.00
Covers up to six members at the same address.
